

Presents:

It's a Matter of Life and Death

The normative and policy implications of fasting to death and other religious practices, and the regulation of life and death in India and the United States

A roundtable discussion featuring:

- Elizabeth Price Foley, Constitutional Law professor, author of The Law of Life and Death (Harvard U. Press, 2011)
- Shekhar Hattangadi, Law professor, journalist and filmmaker, author of the award-winning documentary Santhara: A Challenge to Indian Secularism? (2015)
- Moderated by Manuel A. Gomez, Law professor and Associate Dean for International & Graduate Studies, FIU College of Law

Wednesday, November 16, 2016

12:30 to 2:00 pm

FIU College of Law | RDB 2008

Free and open to the public, but RSVP required: <https://lifeanddeath2016.eventbrite.com>

Lunch will be served