

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL FOR JAIN STUDIES

12th ANNUAL JAIN STUDIES PROGRAM IN INDIA

June 1st - July 10th, 2016

6 Week Program in Delhi, Jaipur and Indore, INDIA

Join the International Summer School for Jain Studies (ISSJS) in India for an annual summer program that will focus on the religious and cultural tradition of Jainism. Jainism is a religious tradition with principle teachings based on non-violence, non-possession, self control and strenuous effort in pursuit of spiritual goals.

This six week advanced program is designed for motivated Graduate students and PhD candidates, PhD scholars, full time professors and full time faculty in Religion, Philosophy, South Asian studies, Anthropology and other related subjects (like history, art, music, public health, bio-ethics, education, management etc.).

PROGRAM INCLUDES 4 CREDIT UNITS AVAILABLE

- Immersion into Jain philosophy and culture in India
 - Lectures by area specialists / scholars
 - Interaction with Jain monks and nuns
 - Independent research opportunities
 - Site visits and field trips
 - Group Discussions amongst participants

PROGRAM FEE $750 USD*

*All participants are refunded the full tuition fee upon successful completion of program

 $1,000 Stipend is awarded to full-time professors and faculty members following successful completion of the program

*Fee includes twin shared rooms (Air Cooled), vegetarian meals and inland travels in association with the program. Airfare, Tourist Visa and insurance costs are the responsibility of the participant.

ROLLING ADMISSION
APPLICATION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 14th, 2016

FOR FURTHER DETAILS & APPLICATION FORMS, PLEASE VISIT WWW.ISJS.IN

Questions? Contact:

ISSJS-Head Office

Dr. Shugan Jain, Chairman-shuganjain1941@gmail.com
Admissions, Mr. Sushil Jana- admission@isjs.in

USA Program Coordinator

Ms. Carly Gaffey - carlycrotty@gmail.com
Loyola Marymount University-Yoga Studies