

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL FOR JAIN STUDIES

12th ANNUAL JAIN STUDIES PROGRAM IN INDIA

June 5th - July 2nd, 2016

4 Week Program in Delhi, Jaipur and Aligarh, INDIA

Join the International Summer School for Jain Studies (ISSJS) in India for an annual summer program that will focus on the religious and cultural tradition of Jainism. Jainism is a religious tradition with principle teachings based on non-violence, non-possession, self control and strenuous effort in pursuit of spiritual goals.

This four week intermediate level program is designed for third and fourth year undergraduate students, graduate students, degree holders, PhD candidates, Professors, and faculty in Religion, Philosophy, South Asian studies and Anthropology and other related subjects (history, art, music, public health, bio-ethics, education, management etc.) who desire to learn about Jainism as a part of their higher education.

PROGRAM INCLUDES 3 CREDIT UNITS AVAILABLE

- Immersion into Jain philosophy and culture in India
 - Lectures by area specialists / scholars
 - Interaction with Jain monks and nuns
 - Site visits and field trips
 - Group Discussions amongst participants

PROGRAM FEE $650 USD

- *Fee Includes: twin shared rooms (Air Cooled), vegetarian meals and inland travels in association with the program
- * Airfare to and from India, Tourist Visa and Insurance costs are the responsibility of the participant

ROLLING ADMISSION
APPLICATION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 14th, 2016

FOR FURTHER DETAILS & APPLICATION FORMS, PLEASE VISIT WWW.ISJS.IN

Questions? Contact:

ISJS-Head Office

Dr. Shugan Jain, Chairman-shuganjain1941@gmail.com
Admissions, Mr. Sushil Jana- admission@isjs.in

USA Program Coordinator

Ms. Carly Gaffey - carlycrotty@gmail.com
Loyola Marymount University-Yoga Studies