INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL FOR JAIN STUDIES

12th ANNUAL JAIN STUDIES PROGRAM IN INDIA
June 5 - July 14, 2016
6 Week program in Delhi, Jaipur and Indore, India

An advanced program designed for motivated graduate students, PhD scholars, full-time professors and faculty in Religion, Philosophy, South Asian studies and other related subjects who desire to learn about Jainism as a part of their higher education.

Join the International Summer School for Jain Studies (ISSJS) in India for an annual summer program that will focus on the religious and cultural tradition of Jainism.

Jainism is a religious tradition with principal teachings based on nonviolence, non-possession, self control, and strenuous effort in pursuit of spiritual goals.

PROGRAM INCLUDES

4 Credit Units Available
- Immersion into Jain philosophy and culture in India
- Lectures by area specialists/scholars
- Interaction with Jain monks and nuns
- Independent research opportunities
- Site visits and field trips

PROGRAM FEE

$750 USD
*All participants are refunded full tuition fee upon successful completion of program

$1,000 Stipend is awarded to full-time faculty members
*Fee includes lodging, meals, and inland travel (bus and train) in association with the program. Airfare, Tourist Visa, and insurance costs are the responsibility of the participant.

Rolling Admission
APPLICATION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 14, 2016

To apply please visit: www.isjs.in

ISSJS Offices
Dr. Shugan Jain, Chairman
shuganjain1941@gmail.com
Mr. Sushil Jana, Admissions
admissions@isjs.in

LMU|LA
Loyola Marymount University

USA Program Coordinator
Ms. Carly Gaffey
Loyola Marymount University
carlycrotty@gmail.com
1.603.300.6989