

INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL FOR JAIN STUDIES

TEACHING FOR PEACE

An Indian Immersion Experience in Practical Nonviolence

July 7th through 28th, 2019

3 week in Delhi, Jaipur, Jalgaon and Pune in INDIA

Apply Before 15th Jan, 2019 and Get Early Bird Discount[^]

7th Annual Teaching for Peace program is designed for K-12 teachers who wish to integrate practical nonviolence into their lives, classrooms and schools.

- Learn about nonviolence (ahimsa in Sanskrit) and its applications;
- Observe the use of ahimsa principles both inside and outside the classroom;
- Study Gandhi and learn how he was influenced by the concept of ahimsa;
- Explore historical and living examples of ahimsa and discuss them with fellow participants;
- Discuss concepts like tolerance, equanimity, forgiveness, harmony, sharing, friendship and self-discipline;
- Visit a variety of schools and interact with students, fellow teachers and management;
- Develop new ideas and add depth to your curriculum through collaboration with likeminded colleagues;
- Experience the culture and history of India.

PROGRAM FEE

US $ 650 #

([^]Get Early Bird Discount of 5% of Program Fee)

Fee Includes twin shared rooms (swamp cooler), Jain Vegetarian meals, entry fee of Taj Mahal, Ajanta Caves and inland travels (bus and train) associated with the program. Transferable 3 Credit Units.

Airfare to and from India, Tourist Visa and Insurance costs are the responsibility of the participant

ROLLING ADMISSION

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 28th, 2019

For Further Details & Application forms, Please visit www.isjs.in

QUESTIONS? CONTACT

Ms. Laura Hirshfield, Program Co-Founder,
English Teacher, Youth Build Charter School of California
teachersinindia@gmail.com

ISJS-Head Office

Dr. Shugan Chand Jain, Chairman- shuganjain1941@gmail.com
Mr. Sushil Jana, Admission Office- admission@isjs.in

USA Program Coordinator

Ms. Shaun Meghan McNally
smcnally1@gmail.com

Loyola Marymount University

LMU|LA
Loyola Marymount
University

